

THE FULL IMAGE SOLUTION FOR MAC FROM ACD SYSTEMS

VICTORIA, BC (December 09, 2020) This week, ACD Systems releases ACDSee Photo Studio Mac 7, a powerful and full featured digital asset management (DAM) tool.

With this new release, ACD Systems draws on their decades of experience perfecting digital asset management solutions to offer Mac customers an amazing all-in-one tool. Organizational options are almost limitless. You can sort, rate, add color labels and tags, and set categories and keywords. However you like to organize your images, it's possible with ACDSee Photo Studio Mac 7.

As well as categorization options, ACDSee comes preloaded with a range of features that optimize and accelerate your DAM. Organizational processes such as comparing images, finding duplicates, advancing, copy and pasting metadata – are all a breeze.

With this release, not only do you get unrivalled DAM from one of the pioneering companies in the market, but you also get a range of tools for precision editing.

Why choose ACDSee Photo Studio Mac 7?

- The go-to Mac product for all your photography needs.
- Fast performance and accelerated workflow.
- User-friendly interface and customizable layout.
