VICTORIA, BC (May 19, 2021) Today, ACD Systems International launches Luxea Video Editor 6, their latest version of video editing software to provide even more tools for producing the best video possible.

Luxea 6 provides more control to produce video exactly how it was imagined. Luxea 6 offers everything needed to create, produce, and share stunning content with ease and precision. One exciting new feature is the ability to add markers to the timeline, helping build a solid organizational foundation. Another notable new feature is the opacity slider for Color LUTs; imagine the power of controlling the opacity of long sought-after color combinations for each frame. These new features and others pair perfectly with video editing features from previous versions of Luxea.

"Our latest version enhances our previous features, pair all this with our abundance of content packs, and you are set. We are excited for our users to dive in and create the perfect video that has been playing in their mind." - Frank Lin, COO & CTO
